

"I dance to inspire, to grow, and to be able to give back to the community."

KRISTIN SANTIAGO

Culture Shock D.C., Ajnin Precizion,
Tito Boy Scouts, Kodachrome

Kristin is the Founder/Director of Ajnin Precizion Dance Crew (a local hip hop dance troupe), a member of the performance group 'Tito Boy Scouts Dance Crew', the Vice President/D6 Dance Coordinator of Filipino- International Club 2010 Montgomery College Rockville Campus.

Kristin "Kris" Santiago born in Washington D.C., currently majoring in Communications at Montgomery College Rockville is the founder and director of the newly formed dance crew Ajnin Precizion as of March 2008. Kris' dancing background consists since the age of five, from ballet, tap and modern to hip hop choreography and freestyle. She has had a wide set of training from being a member of Hip Hop Dance Troupe "Major Definition" since 2006 and "The Tito " since 2008. She takes opportunities to teach in order to spread her and love of dance. With a heart to learn and train with every chance she gets, under Culture Shock D.C. and fellow dancers. Having experiences in teaching for the filipino networking programs, District 6, Kodachrome and for the county since 2007. She part takes in events to outreach and enhance the inspired individuals in the DMV. Kris has danced professionally having an appearance in Tabi Bonney's music video "Duhh". Her overall goal is to spread her passion and self-expression through dance to the community.

TO EDUCATE

TO UP LIFT

TO INSPIRE

CLASSES

Hip Hop (Beg.) - Teen/Adult

Hip Hop (Int./Adv.) - Teen/Adult